The Wando High School Football Program is seeking advertisers for End Zone Signage for the 2010 season.. This is a new program with the signs being placed on the field along the scoreboard end zone. This is prominent viewing area for maximum exposure. The signs will be placed for all home games. Funds raised will be used specifically to help provide the student/athletes involved in football with the best in equipment and coaching. These signs will be offered at a discounted rate for yearly renewals.

We have contacted you exclusively because of your proven commitment to Wando High School. In appreciation of your support advertisers will receive a reserved season ticket package for two and a reserved parking pass.

The coaching staff and players are excited about the 2010 football season. Warrior Pride is at an all-time high within the football program and we are looking forward to making the supporters of the football program Proud of the Warriors.
